Dear Parent/ Carer

9 February 2018

National Reading Test mocks will be taking place for all pupils in years 7, 8 and 9 next week during their timetabled English lessons.

These are taking place to make sure that pupils are familiar with the examination process and in order to put intervention in place for the upcoming National Reading Tests.

Attached is a sample paper for pupils to practise up until their tests. It is also advised that pupils read as much as possible at home. Please look at the guidance sheets to assist pupils with home reading.

Thank you for your continued support at home with Literacy
